

Pool of Bethesda

Author: Phyllis Hostmeyer

Based on John 5:1-12

The pool offered hope
to the blind, the lame, the paralyzed
When the water stirred up.
No magic stirs in those waters.
It has no power greater than Jesus
No substitute for God.
It is no cause for endless waiting
Depending upon man to help.
To dream of being whole
Lying in wait but not calling to God,
Will never enable anyone to Rise up; take your mat and walk.
